

Impacts of the Light for All Program

Research conducted by MDA PESQUISAS

10 Years
15 million connected people

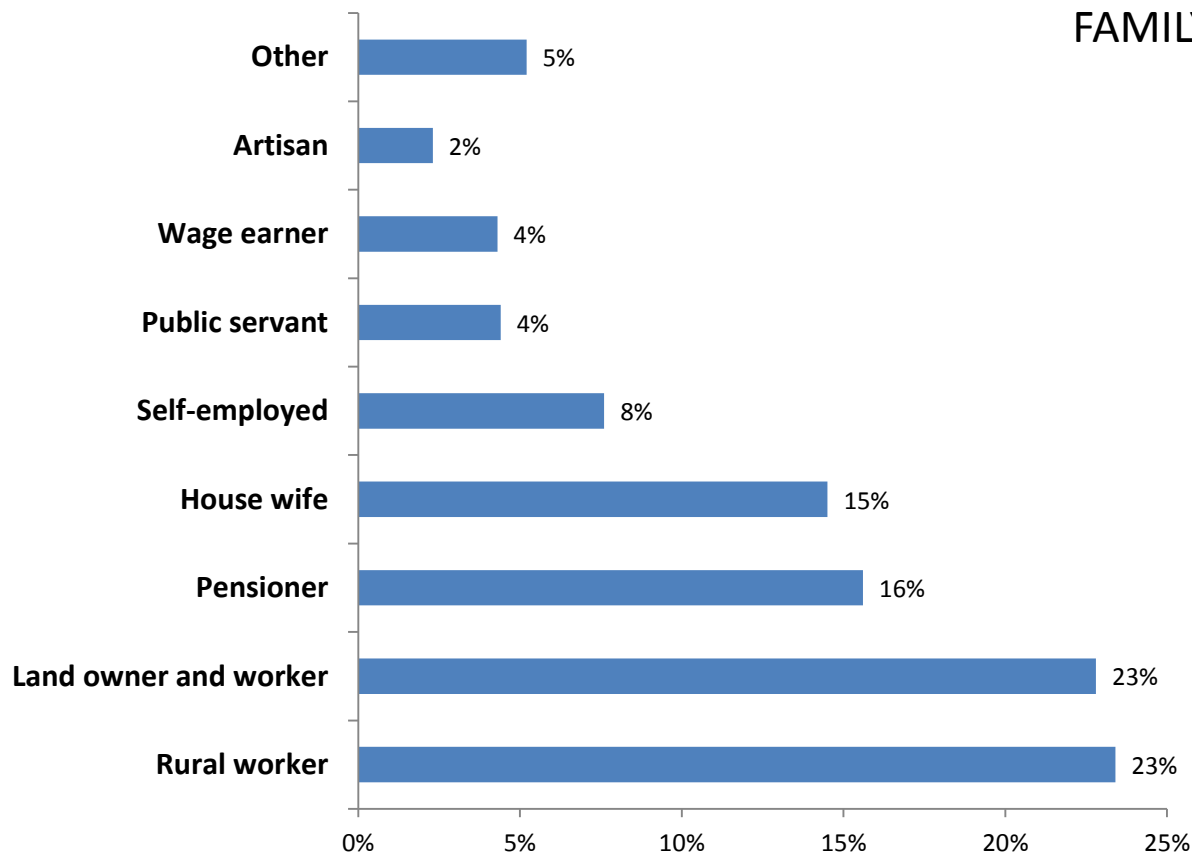

Launch of the Decade of SE4ALL AMERICAS
Santiago, Chile, October 2014

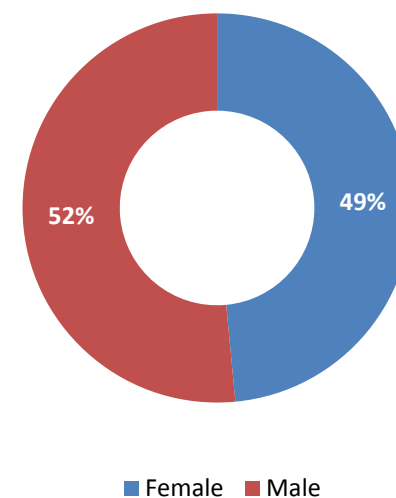

Beneficiaries' Profile

HOUSEHOLDER'S MAIN ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

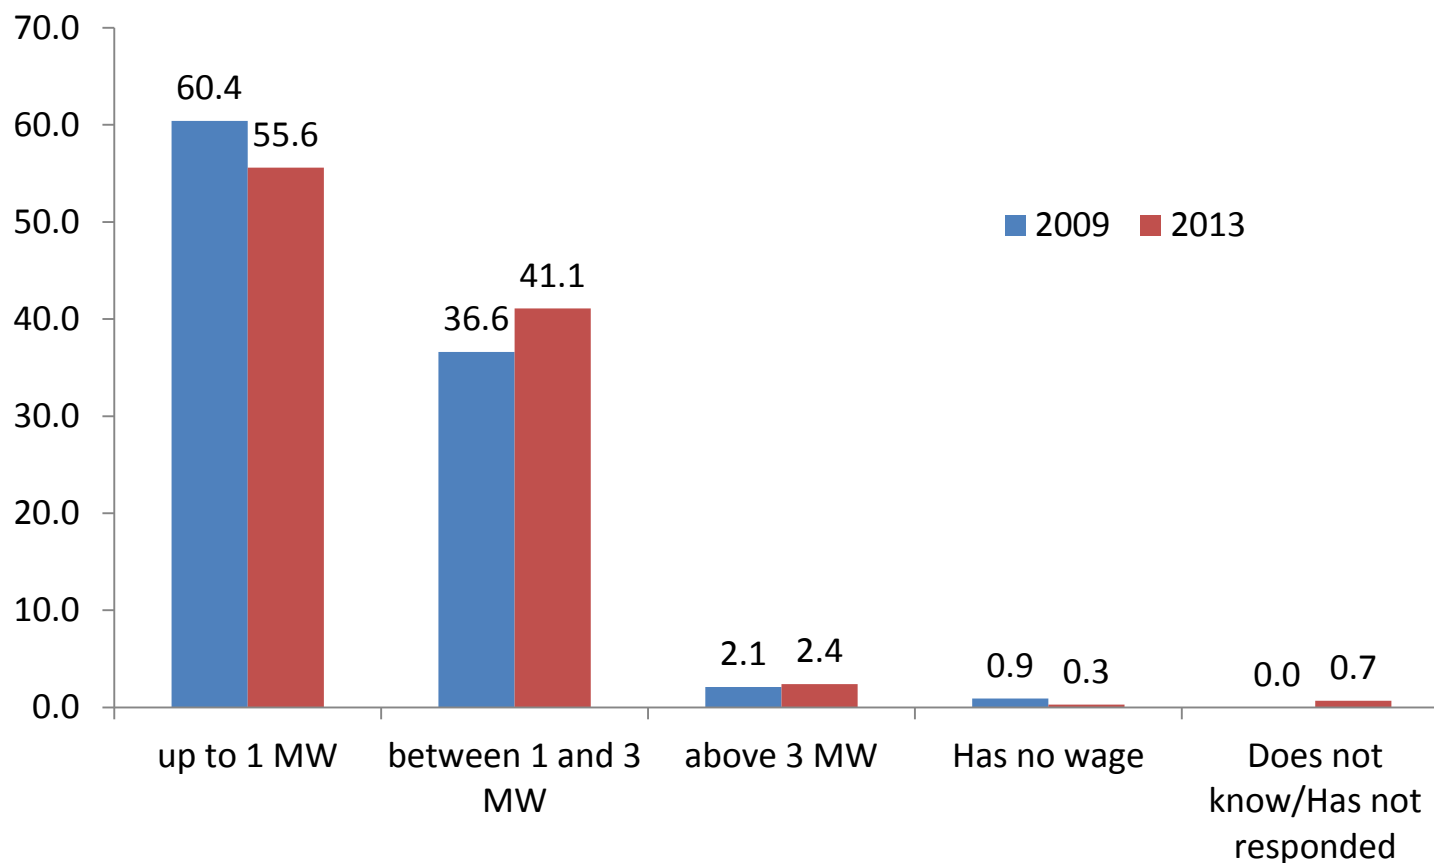

FAMILY COMPOSITION - GENDER

Beneficiaries' Profile

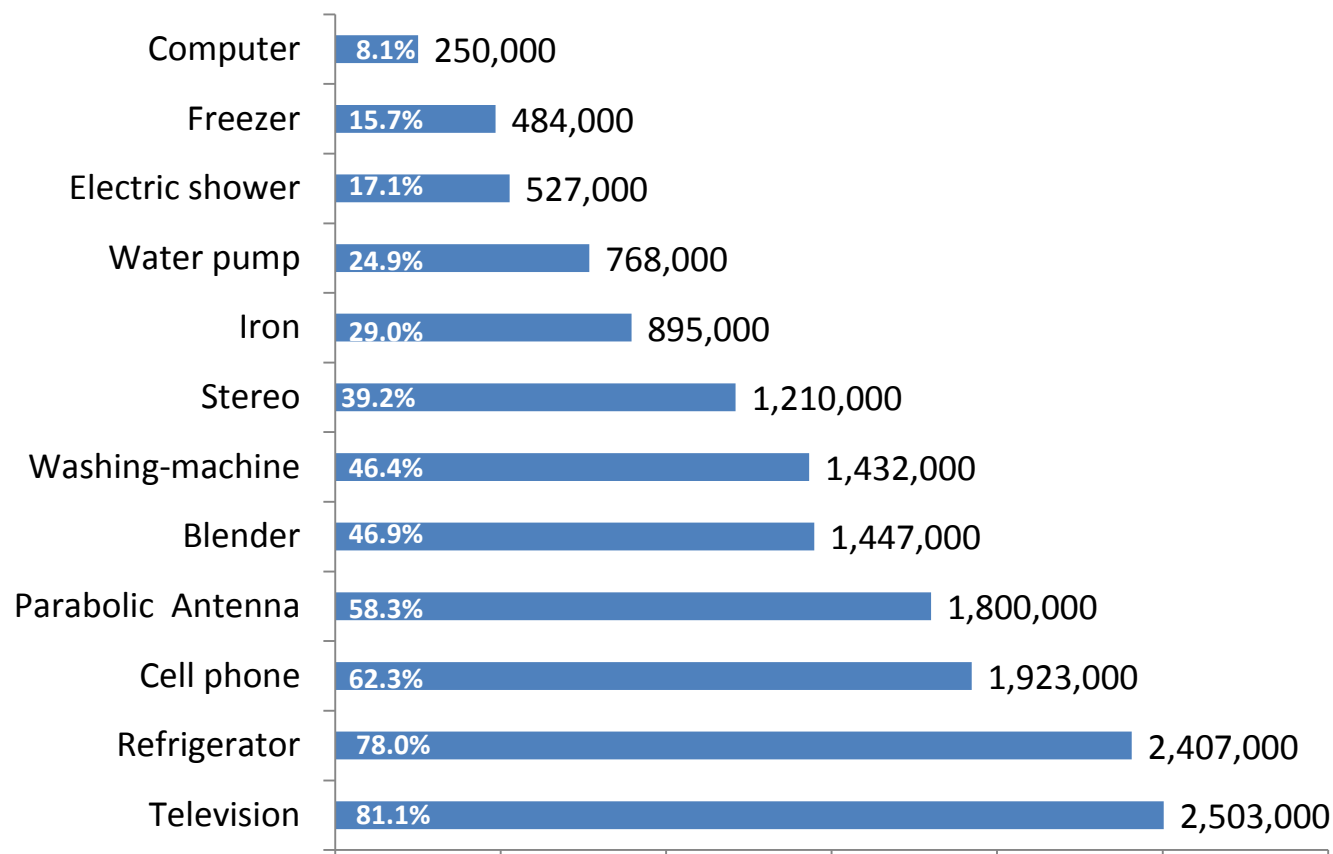

AVERAGE MONTHLY FAMILY WAGE

MW: minimum wage

Acquisition of Domestic Appliances

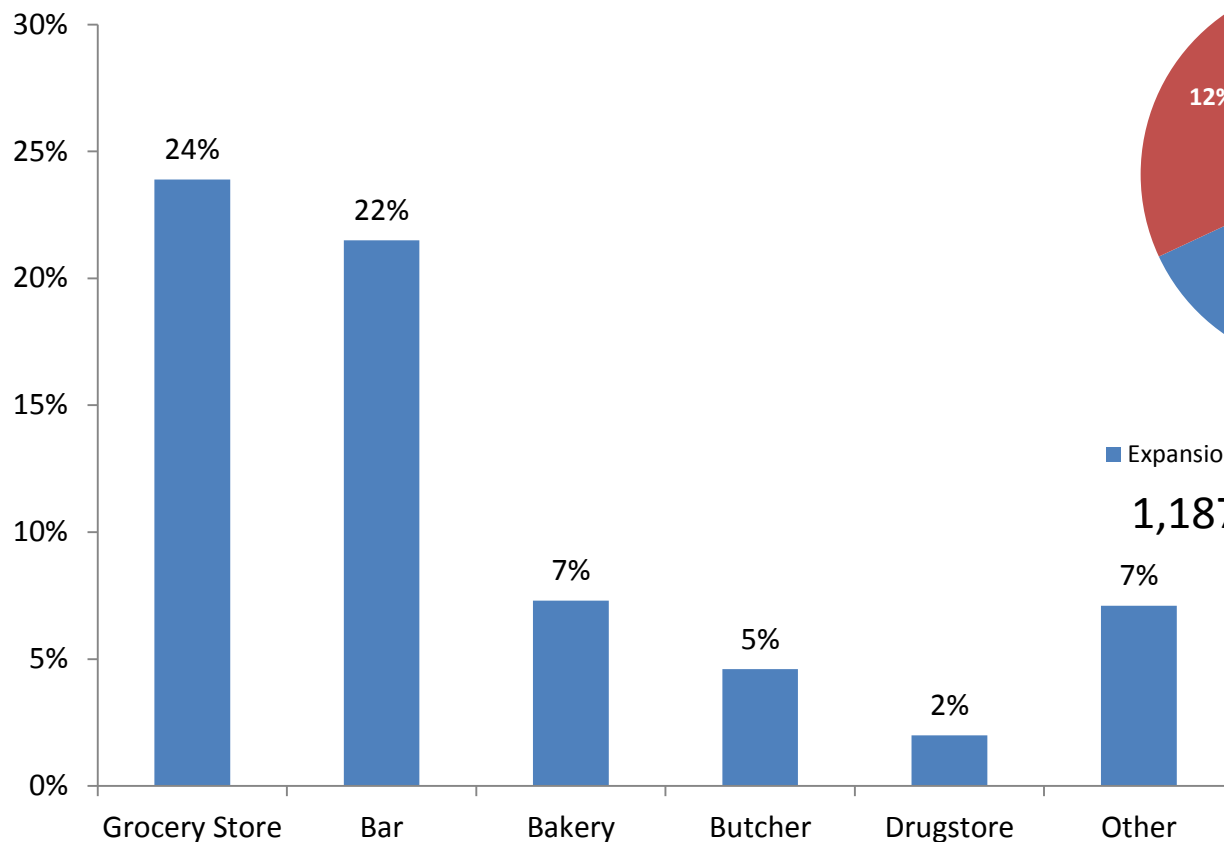

Improvements for Beneficiaries/Community

VARIABLE	2009 RESEARCH	2013 RESEARCH
Quality of life	91.2%	92.9%
House improvements	88.1%	81.8%
Access to computers and cell phones	14.4%	69.7%
School activities during the day	43.0%	64.2%
Availability of food and personal care	33.6%	61.8%
Security	27.1%	56.3%
Participation in social activities	25.2%	54.2%
School activities during the night	40.7%	50.8%
Access to new products and services	29.8%	47.8%
Family income	35.6%	41.2%
Availability of health clinic	22.1%	40.6%
Work opportunities	34.2%	40.5%
Engagement of communitarian associations	20.4%	36.4%
Agricultural and livestock production	24.1%	31.8%
Farming area	21.3%	30.7%

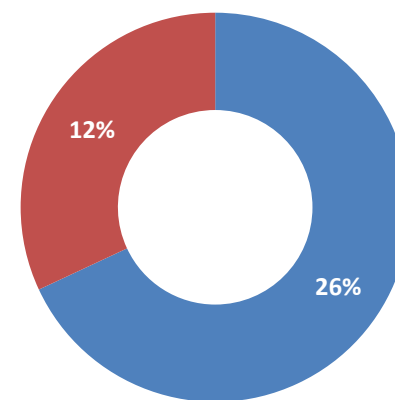

Improvements for Beneficiaries/Community

NEW BUSINESSES

HOME IMPROVEMENTS

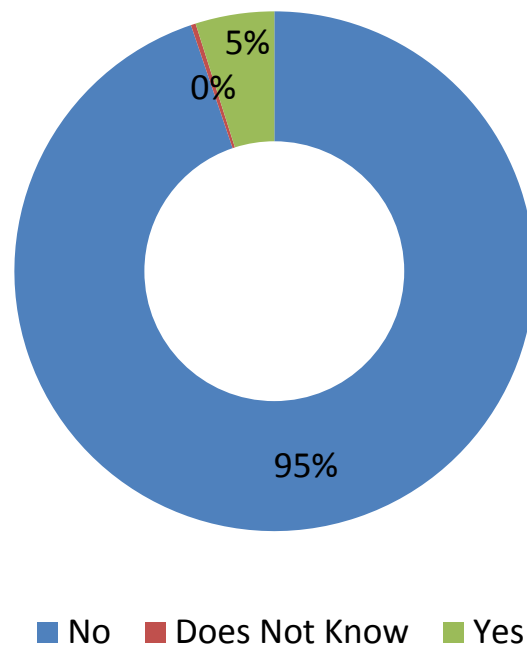

■ Expansion and reforms ■ Construction

1,187,000 households

Migratory Behavior

CAME BACK TO OR STARTED LIVING AT RURAL AREAS AFTER THE PROGRAM

Families: 155,000

People: 775,000

PROMOTING GENDER EQUALITY

Started production activity after the Program

→ 244,559 women

Increased security for women in communities

→ 2,524,128 households
(81.8%)

Started or got back to school after the Program

→ 309,178 women

INVESTMENT

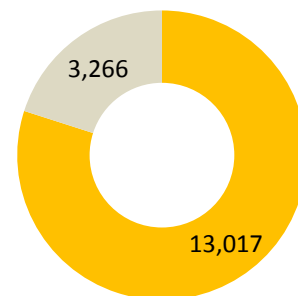

CONTRACTED INVESTMENT

R$ 22,183 billion

FUNDING

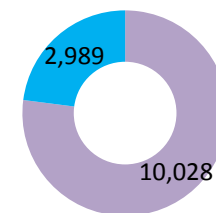

■ Federal Government ■ State Government ■ Executing Agent

■ Released ■ Not Released

CDE: Energy Fund

■ Non Refundable ■ Refundable

OPPORTUNITIES

NEW JOBS

473,000

USED MATERIALS

Posts: 7,920,000 units

Wires: 1,520,000 km

Transformers: 1,160,000 units

VALUE ADDED TO THE ECONOMY through the acquisition of home and kitchen appliances

R$ 6,774,454,871.85

THANK YOU!

Agnes Maria de Aragão da Costa
Director

agnes.costa@mme.gov.br

0055-61-2032-5303

Launch of the Decade of SE4ALL AMERICAS
Santiago, Chile, October 2014

