

Integration & Trade

Home Previous Issues Links Intal Publications Versión en Español Contact

Call for Readers' Comments

 Complete Version
PDF N° 29 (5Mb)

Continuing with the new ideas launched in issue 29 of the Journal, we invite readers to send in their comments on the articles and interviews.

Guidelines:

1. The Editorial Committee will select the comments to be published based, on their analytical insight, their contribution to the debate, and their relationship with existing research.
2. The comments will be published under the author's name. We would therefore welcome the delivery of authors' details (name, nationality, occupation) and contact information (e-mail and telephone number).
3. The Integration & Trade Journal reserves the right to introduce any changes of format and style it considers relevant.
4. Comments should not exceed 700 words in length.
5. Comments will be admitted in Spanish, English, French, and Portuguese.
6. The text should be processed in Word and sent to pubintal@iadb.org
7. The closing date for comments is November 15.

Contents

- Introduction
- Notes by President Moreno
- Articles
- Interviews
- Statistics
- Contributions
- IDB
- INT
- INTAL

