33. IDB - Intern for the Office of Ethics

IDB- 2024 Summer Internship Program

Graduate Intern

Location: Washington, D.C. United States

The IDB Group is a community of diverse, versatile, and passionate people who come together on a journey to improve their lives in Latin America and the Caribbean. Our people find purpose and do what they love in an inclusive, collaborative, agile, and rewarding environment.

About this position

The IDB Group is looking for two (2) active graduate students to be hired as interns under the Consultant modality.

The 2024 Summer Internship Program is a competitive paid opportunity, based in Headquarters, for university students from member countries to learn about development work and corporate management of the Bank, and to acquire work experience at the professional level through on-the-job learning.

What you will do:

- Research, compile and analyze data and information relevant to the ETH's work, make recommendations for improvement, and collaborate making suggestions in benchmarking efforts focused on ethics/professional conduct topics.
- Collaborate in the preparation of documents and templates to be used in investigations, consultations, and the Declaration of Interest's Program.
- Assist in drafting consultations regarding the application of the Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct.
- Research and review case data and ethics consultations to establish behavior patterns to aid in the elaboration of policies, protocols, and misconduct prevention activities.
- Research, compile, analyze, and organize jurisprudence from multilateral organizations' tribunals related to misconduct and workplace investigations.
- Assist the team in its outreach and training activities, including but not limited to supporting the production and data collection, following up on completion training rates, contributing to the development of training and communication products, and recommending improvements to its work and services.

What you'll need

- Education: An active graduate student in criminal law, litigation, anti-corruption, international law, compliance, and/or ethics from an accredited University. The graduation date should be after the Internship period.
- Languages: Fluency in English with a working knowledge of one other Bank language (Spanish, French, or Portuguese) is a plus.
- Soft Skills: Result-driven, collaborative, innovative, client-oriented, strong communicator, self-motivated, eager to learn, and excellent time management event.
- Technical skills: Institutional ethics, research, proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint.
