Dear Requesters,

We acknowledge receipt of your email. However, it is not within the mandate of MICI to address complaints in reference to Bank employees and the Bank’s code of conduct. You have correctly copied the Ethics Office and therefore no further action on the side of MICI will be taken at this point.

We are always available to you in the matters of competence of MICI which is addressing harm due to the potential non-compliance of the Bank with its environmental and social safeguards policies.

Should you have any queries about the latter please do not hesitate in contacting me
